Summer intent letters will be sent out to currently enrolled students in February / March of each year. Currently enrolled students are offered first enrollment for the summer session. If your child will not attend the summer session, but will return for the fall session in August, there will be a fee of $150 to hold your child's spot for the fall. This fee is due by April 1, or the spot will be released and filled. Enrollment will be made available to the waiting list and the public the first week of April.
